ISSUE: OLCC New Outlet License Application – Dave’s Pizza

BACKGROUND:

Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 471.166 establishes the process for local governments to make recommendations to OLCC regarding approval of or denial of initial OLCC license applications and any additional privileges to their existing OLCC license. As part of the process, the Police Department reviews all initial and additional privilege applications to ensure compliance with applicable regulations. The City Council is charged with the responsibility for recommending approval or denial of these applications to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission bases on information submitted by the Police Department.

On June 04 2013, Dave and Teresa Sherwood, owners of a new proposed pizza restaurant, Dave’s Pizza applied for an OLCC Limited On-Premises sales license that would allow them to sell beer and wine at their business located at 740 Koos Bay Blvd. in Coos Bay. The Sherwood’s are in the process of taking over the ownership of Wanda’s Tavern and changing it into a Pizza Parlor.

Records Supervisor Christine Esperance has reviewed the application, conducted a records check of the business and applicants. The investigation revealed no information that would prohibit the issuance of the Limited On-Premises Sales OLCC license.
