

CITY OF COOS BAY CITY COUNCIL
Agenda Staff Report

MEETING DATE July 15, 2014	AGENDA ITEM NUMBER
--------------------------------------	---------------------------

TO: Mayor Shoji and City Councilors

FROM: Gary McCullough, Chief of Police
THROUGH: Rodger Craddock, City Manager

ISSUE: OLCC License Renewals for Bon Appetit Bistro & Catering

BACKGROUND:

Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 471.166 establishes the process for local governments to make recommendations to OLCC regarding approval of or denial of initial OLCC license applications and subsequent yearly renewals. As part of the process, the Police Department reviews all initial and renewal applications to ensure compliance with applicable regulations. The City Council is charged with the responsibility for recommending approval or denial of these applications to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission bases on information submitted by the Police Department.

On July 3, 2014, the owner of the Bon Appetit Bistro & Catering submitted a renewal application for their existing Limited On-Premises Sales OLCC license at their business. Records Supervisor Chris Esperance has reviewed the renewal application and conducted a records check of the business and applicants. The investigation revealed no information that would prohibit the approval of the application.

BUDGET IMPLICATIONS:

None

ADVANTAGES:

A business, operating in compliance with OLCC regulations, can add to the economic stability of our community.

DISADVANTAGES:

None

ACTION REQUESTED:

If it pleases the Council, please recommend the approval of the Bon Appetiti Bistro & Catering Limited On-Premises OLCC License renewals.

ISSUE: OLCC License Renewal Application – Red Lion Inn

BACKGROUND:

Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 471.166 establishes the process for local governments to make recommendations to OLCC regarding approval of or denial of initial OLCC license renewals, applications, and any additional privileges to their existing OLCC licenses. As part of the process, the Police Department reviews all initial and additional privilege applications to ensure compliance with applicable regulations. The City Council is charged with the responsibility for recommending approval or denial of these applications to the Oregon Liquor Control Commission bases on information submitted by the Police Department.

On June 20, 2014, representatives of the Red Lion Inn/Coos Bay submitted a renewal application for their exiting OLCC licenses. Records Supervisor Chris Esperance has reviewed the application and conducted a records check of the business and applicants. The investigation revealed no information that would prohibit the issuance of the additional privilege to the OLCC license.

ADVANTAGES:

A business operating in compliance with OLCC regulation, can add to the economic stability of our community.

DISADVANTAGES:

None identified

BUDGET:

No impact

RECOMMENDATION:

If it pleases the Council, please recommend the approval of the Red Lion Inn's OLCC Licenses renewal.
