Another Façade Grant Success!

Fish and Chips, Burgers, and Beer... and now a brand new look. Coos Bay's own Coney Station restaurant located at 295 S. Broadway in Coos Bay received a façade grant from the Coos Bay Urban Renewal Agency for façade improvements to their restaurant which included a new paint color and awning. These changes along with an interior updating and the amazing food and drink options make the business one of the great places to frequent in downtown Coos Bay.

While the renovations are still a work in progress (they are waiting on more awning fabric which is on back order), the transformation is nothing short of amazing!

The owner, Sandy Jones, along with Daniel Wenbourne Construction and Art Signs are making a difference in downtown Coos Bay.

John Hunt is the new owner of 105.9 FM The Wave, which will be on the air soon and broadcasting from the second floor of the Fletcher building.

John started his radio career at the age of 15 on his High School radio station; and within six months, he got his first "paying" radio gig at WKIK-AM in Leonardtown, Maryland. Since then, he has done radio both on air and in sales in Maryland, Ohio, Georgia, Texas, and Nevada before purchasing the station in Coos Bay, Oregon. John was inducted into the Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2005.

John looks forward to being involved in the local community. He is excited about the opportunities ahead, and he is excited to "Rock the South Coast" with the Most Eclectic Mix of All That Rocks!"
