The tax credit, if adopted, is likely to have it's largest impact on the South and West, (including the Coos Bay / North Bend area). Senator Kerry was quoted in the article as saying he has bipartisan support and that he wants to get it (tax credits) "out there" fast. GOOD NEWS ON THE ECONOMY – The Coos County unemployment rate for April, 2000 was a surprisingly low 6.6%. When was the last time the Coos County unemployment rate was 6.6%? The answer: May, 1995 and again, in September of 1995, at 6.4 percent. For almost six months in 1995 we experienced low rates of unemployment, ranging from 6.4% to 7.4% from April through October, 1995. The low April, 2000 rate may be the start of a similar run of good fortune and low unemployment for Coos County! [This information courtesy of the Oregon Employment Department]
