Press Release

The City of Coos Bay Urban Renewal Agency is requesting input from the public on potential use of property located in the downtown area of Coos Bay. The Agency is seeking both short term and long term usage of the lots currently occupied by the old fire station (150 South 4th Street) and the Lockhart Building (335 Central Avenue). Potential uses could include green space/park, parking lot, redevelopment, or a combination of those options. It should be noted that the city does not currently own the Lockhart property.
