The City of Coos Bay has hired Historic Theatre Consultants to perform a market/feasibility study for the Egyptian Theatre Restoration Project. Historic Theatre Consultants is located in Tucson AZ and owned by Herb Stratford. Historic Theatre Consultants was one of four companies that responded to the city's request for qualifications. Mr. Stratford is in the process of collecting background information on the theater from city staff and the Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association and will be working in the community the week of March 19th. It is anticipated the study will be completed by the first week of June. A public presentation of the study by Mr. Stratford will be given at 5:30 p.m. June 13th in the Coos Bay Downtown Fire Hall conference room, 450 Elrod Avenue.

The Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association is inviting the public to celebrate St. Patrick's Day with them on Saturday, March 17th. The movie will be Darby O'Gill and the Little People and begins at 7 p.m. at Broadway Hall (next door to Shark Bites Café). Admission is $10 for adults and $6 for children. Admission includes a free beverage and popcorn. Bring family and friends for a fun evening and support restoration of the theatre.

For information about upcoming events, membership, volunteering, fundraising and donations is available by contacting the Egyptian Theatre Preservation Association at 541-269-8650 or the office at 255 North Broadway, Coos Bay, Oregon or online at www.egyptian-theatre.com
